OVERVIEW OF ASSIGNMENTS

Case Analysis Assignments
These are case-related assignments worth 7.5% each. Each assignment, you will be asked to analyze particular issues in the case and prepare a memo.

Class Preparation, Group and Individual Participation
This course is designed to encourage active participation. In each session we will discuss specific auditing cases. Students are expected to prepare for each session, attend classes regularly, and actively participate in class discussions.

Participation marks will consist of 2% for attendance, 10% for Individual participation (in-class and pre-class) and 3% for in-class group presentations. Every student is expected to contribute by actively engaging in both group and class discussions.

Students are expected to have read each assigned case and to be prepared to discuss the key concepts and issues raised by those cases. While in class, the groups are expected to prepare a group response (GR) to assigned question(s). To demonstrate that the student has prepared in advance, before class students will be expected to submit an individual response to specific questions related to each case that will be covered in the week. The individual response (IR) is due online on Moodle before each class. Each group will be asked to lead at least one class discussion of a case questions and will be evaluated on the basis of the quality of their presentation.

See document posted on the course website for a detailed list of required individual responses to cases

Group Research Assignment
Details will be posted on Moodle.

NOTE: Students must submit their pair assignments and group assignment to turnitin using Moodle – details will be given at the first session.

Midterm Debrief
After the midterm is returned, students are expected to perform a thorough debrief and submit a 1 to 2-page analysis of their performance and their plan to improve. Students will be provided with the opportunity to rewrite a component of their exam.

Reallocation of Marks if a Midterm Examination is missed for a Valid Reason

If a midterm examination is missed due to a valid reason such as illness or other reason approved by the Course Director, the midterm mark allocation of 20% will be added to the final examination percentage.

The documentation required to support this reallocation are as follows:
1. For illness, a completed medical form (physician’s statement) provided by the Registrar’s Office, http://www.yorku.ca/laps/council/students/documents/APS.pdf OR for another valid reason, the documentation requested by the Course Director, AND
2. A signed statement stating that you are aware that your final examination will be worth 55%. This signed statement is to be attached to the documentation provided in (1) above.

Physician statements need to be from the same day as the midterm or the day immediately after. Physician statements older than one day after the date of the midterm exam will not be accepted.
