Expanded Course Description

The aim of this course is to introduce students to a number of topics in labour economics. Students will learn about a range of stylized facts related to various labour market outcomes for Canada and other developed countries, both in the long term and over the business cycle. Students will also learn about a number of recent theoretical models that have been developed by economists to analyze these trends. By the end of the course, students will have a solid understanding of how the labour market works. They will be familiar with the main recent trends in variables such as unemployment, wages, and wage inequality in Canada and other developed countries, as well as the theoretical frameworks that are used to study these variables. The topics we cover will help students to develop a critical understanding of a number of policy-relevant current labour market issues.

Course Text / Readings

The main (required) text for the course is Benjamin, Gunderson, Lemieux, and Riddell, Labour Market Economics, 8th edition (abbreviated BGLR below). Some of the topics we will cover will be based on Cahuc, Carcillo, and Zylberberg, Labor Economics, 2nd Edition (abbreviated CCZ below). The coverage in the CCZ book is highly technical; however, the topics will be covered in class in a less technical manner. The relevant chapters from the CCZ book will be made available through Moodle. Additional readings (also required) will be indicated on the course website. The course website will also include links to additional resources, including suggested research papers, newspaper articles and podcasts that are relevant to each topic.

Evaluation

The breakdown of the course grade is as follows:

Problem Sets (4 in total, 2.5% of the final grade each)	10%
Essay	35%
Midterm and Final Exam	55%

The weight of the Midterm and Final Exam will be calculated as follows:

- (1) 25% for the Midterm and 30% for the Final, if your performance on the Midterm is better than your performance on the Final; or:
(2) 15% for the Midterm and 40% for the Final, if your performance on the Final is better than your performance on the Midterm.

Please note:

- Everyone is expected to attend class and participate regularly.
- The problem sets will be due in class on September 18th, October 2nd, November 6th, and November 27th.
- The essay grade (35% in total) consists of the following components, all of which must be submitted via Moodle:

Written in-class exercise on September 11th	2%
Written in-class exercise on September 18th	2%
Written in-class exercise on September 25th	2%
Essay topic choice , due on October 2nd	0%
Essay outline , due on October 28th	4%
Essay final submission , due on December 2nd	25%
- Full details on the assessment criteria for the essay will be provided in a separate document.
- The midterm will be held on October 9th during class time. There will be no make-ups for the midterm exam. If a student misses the midterm for a reason deemed acceptable by the instructor, the weight from the midterm will be transferred to the final exam, i.e. the final will account for 55% of the student's final grade.
- The final exam will take place during the official exam period and will include the material covered during the entire semester.

Grading, Assignment Submission, Lateness Penalties and Missed Tests

Grading: The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

Assignment Submission: Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well, but on time. Accordingly, assignments for this course must be received on the due date specified for the assignment. Note that Problem Sets must be handed in at the start of class.

Lateness Penalty: Problem Sets received later than the due date will not be accepted. Exceptions to the lateness penalty for valid reasons such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., may be entertained by the Course Instructor but will require supporting documentation (e.g., a doctor's letter). The penalties for late submission for the essay are detailed in a separate document.

Missed Tests: There will be no make-ups for the midterm exam. If a student misses the midterm for a reason deemed acceptable by the instructor, the weight from the midterm will be transferred to the final exam. A deferral for the final exam will be granted only for medical reasons. In such cases students should submit a deferred exam application together with the supporting documents (attending physician's statement) to the Economics Department to my attention. The date and time of the deferred exam will be set at a later date. Students who may require further extensions or accommodation will have to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.
