TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT (ONLINE)
HRM 3410 A 3.0 (SUMMER 2020)

Course website: moodle.yorku.ca

Instructor: Dr. Gordon Wang

E-Mail: gordwang@yorku.ca

Office: Atkinson 121

Office Hours: Tuesday 20:00-21:00 (online) or by appointment (Office, Atkinson 121)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course provides students with an understanding of the role and function of training and development in organizations. Specifically, students will examine theories and principles of learning and explore their application to organizational contexts. In addition to traditional learning functions, we will investigate timely learning initiatives that include mentoring, coaching, leadership development, and e-learning. Students will leave the course with a developed understanding of how employee learning contributes to organizational success.

PREREQUISITES: AP/ADMS 1000 3.00, AP/ADMS 2400 3.00, and AP/HRM 2600 3.00.

Students are personally responsible to ensure that they have the required prerequisites as stated in the course outline. Students who do not have the prerequisites are at risk of being dropped from the course at any time during the course. The department will not be responsible for refunds resulting from students being dropped from a course due to a lack of the appropriate prerequisites.

REQUIRED TEXT:

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

The purpose of this course is to provide a well-rounded approach to training and development that is applicable to students in human resources as well as those seeking careers in other areas of business and management. Students will leave the course with an enhanced comprehension of how training and development contributes to organizational success.

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- understand the role and function of training and development in organizations.
- understand learning and motivation theories and their implications for the effectiveness of training programs.
- identify training needs analysis and objectives prior to the undertaking of training programs and to determine if training is a solution to performance problems.
- understand the issues and steps involved in designing and delivering a training program.
- define, differentiate and critically appraise various training and development methods.
- understand factors which impede transfer of training, and how to overcome them and facilitate training effectiveness.
- apply training and development theories and models to areas such as orientation, mentoring, teams, and leadership & management skills.
- understand how to evaluate the effectiveness of training programs in terms of training criteria and evaluation designs.

COURSE EVALUATION:

Weekly Online Discussions:	15%
Weekly Online Quizzes:	15%
Mid-Term Individual Paper:	35%
Final Exam:	35%

All final grades will be reviewed by the School of Human Resources Management. The School reserves the rights to modify them in order to maintain high standards.

Weekly Online Discussions: 5 x 3.0%

This course takes place entirely online. Although "class participation" cannot take place in the traditional sense, there is a great deal of opportunity for interaction with peers and your instructor. Throughout the semester, FIVE online discussion topics will be introduced. You are expected to take part in each online discussion during the week when they are scheduled. To be clear, you are required to participate in each discussion topic within SEVEN days (168 hours) of it being posted by the instructor.

For example, online discussion topic #1 will be posted at 11:00am, Tuesday, May 19, you will have SEVEN days (168 hours) to submit your posts for credit. The discussion window for Topic #1 then will be closed at 11:00am, Tuesday, May 26. ALL LATE POSTS AFTER THIS TIME WILL NOT BE AWARDED ANY MARKS.

A grade of 3% will be assigned to each online discussion topic based on quality of contribution. You will be able to earn marks by engaging your peers, encouraging conversations, offering comments and suggestions, and sharing your thoughts. To gain the full marks for each online discussion topic, you must write your posts with a total of 450-500 words, as well as make comments on at least TWO posts from your classmates. Marks can be taken away for inappropriate comments that do not show respect and civility. Individuals who do not participate in online discussions should not expect to be rewarded for this dimension of performance.

Weekly Online Quizzes: 10 x 1.5%

There are 10 online quizzes throughout the semester. Each quiz consists of 15 multiple-choice questions, and will be posted on Moodle each week, following the lectures on corresponding topics. The quizzes are “open-book” and will be completed online individually.

Each quiz will be available for a calendar window of FIVE DAYS (120 hours) following posting. For example, online quiz #1 will be posted at 11:00am, Tuesday, May 19. The window for Quiz #1 then will be closed at 11:00am, Sunday, May 24. Once you launch the quiz, it must be completed within 20 MINUTES – you cannot return to it later.

Please use a wired internet connection while completing quizzes to avoid any internet interruptions. After the window for an online quiz is closed, you will receive feedback on which of your answers was correct or incorrect. To get the full marks for each weekly quiz, you must answer all questions correctly.

Mid-Term Individual Paper: 35%

There is no mid-term exam for this course. Instead, you are asked to write an individual paper, which is a case study. You will be assigned a comprehensive case to analyze, and then submit a written case study report to Turnitin via the Assignment Link on the course website, no later than 11:00am, Tuesday, June 30. In your written report, you are expected to answer all questions raised by the instructor based on the knowledge of training and development that you have learned from this course.

The format of the written case study report is 9-10 pages (excluding any appendices or references), double spaced, 1" margins on all sides, and 12-point Times New Roman font. The report must include a list of articles cited, using the APA style, and also include your full name and student numbers. The report will be evaluated on style (grammar, etc.) and content (the extent and quality of research, analysis, and recommendations). A more detailed instruction will be posted on the course website after the midterm exam.

Take-Home Final Exam: 35%

The final exam will be held during the formal examination period for the semester. It is imperative that students attend the final exam since there will be no other alternative date to write the final exam. The final exam is cumulative, covering classes 1-13. The format will be short-essay questions. More details will be provided closer to the exam date.

Note: Not all the material covered in the textbook will be discussed in class. Conversely, some of the materials presented in the recorded lectures will not be in the textbook. You will be responsible for all of the materials in both the assigned textbook chapters and in the recorded lectures.

STANDARDS OF PERFORMANCE:

Exams results will determine students' grades. It is expected that all students will write the mid-term and final exam on the scheduled day, time, and location.

Students who choose to enroll in this online course are personally responsible for ensuring that they are able to write the examination during the date/time specified by York University, and for ensuring that discretionary activities such as vacations do not conflict with examination dates and the academic requirements of this course. If the final examination is missed, a deferred exam can be written only when supporting medical documentation (accompanied by a signed physician's note) is provided to the School of HRM. Deferred final exams are common across all sections of HRM 3410, i.e., not just for the internet version of the course, and are cumulative in nature. If a student does not write the final exam and is not able to provide acceptable medical documentation for the missed exam, she/he will need to petition for a deferral to the Faculty council.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Communications with the Instructor

It is always challenging to maintain efficient and effective communication between the instructor and students. Please take a note of the following important communication policies for the course.

- If you have any questions on course policies, requirements, contents, and etc., you could submit your questions via Message on the Moodle course site, or send an email directly to gordonwang@yorku.ca. I will try to respond to your questions within 24 hours.
- If you have questions that may be of interest to the rest of the class, you could post them using Open Forum on the Moodle course site so that other students can benefit from the questions and answers.
- I will summarize all students' questions and my answers in a Q&A folder on the Moodle course site weekly. I strongly recommend you check the Q&A folder for possible answers before submitting your questions to me.

Course Announcements

I will post messages to the class using Announcements on the Moodle course site. These messages may regard such things as the exam locations, exam formats, course changes, etc. You should check the Announcements board frequently for messages.

Open Forum

You may use Open Forum on the Moodle course site to communicate with the rest of the class about any course-related issues, to submit new posts and/or respond to other people's posts, and to ask questions and get answers. Anyone can post ad hoc, general discussions topics here. However, there will be no participation marks for posting here.

Recorded Lectures

Recorded lectures will be uploaded to the Moodle course site on Tuesday per week. These recorded lectures are intellectual property owned by the instructor. Any unauthorized dissemination is strictly prohibited. In the other words, you should not download and share recorded lectures with any individual contacts or organizations without the instructor's written permission. Infringing a faculty member's property rights is a serious offense and the consequences are severe. Make yourself aware of them.

Student Resources

Nelson Canada offers a variety of additional resources associated with the required textbook through their website (go to www.nelsonbrain.com). These are accessed with a key code included with your purchased textbook. Resources includes student versions of Powerpoint lecture slides and 'Test Yourself' interactive quizzes. An earlier edition of another textbook site has many other tips and recommendations relevant for academic achievement (http://www.cengage.com/cgiwadsworth/course_products_wp.pl?fid=M20b&product_isbn_issn=0176501789&template=NELSTU).

Marks and Grades Postings

Unofficial marks for online discussions and quizzes, mid-term individual paper will be posted on the Moodle course site. Official final grades will be posted by the Registrar Office following the take-home final exam.

Moodle Course Site

The Moodle course website is accessible at <https://moodle.yorku.ca/>. Students will require an active Passport York Account to access the site. Secured access to this site is usually activated on the first day of term. For technical support issues related to Moodle, please refer to the Student Resources page at <https://moodle.yorku.ca/students/documentation/index.html>.

Support for Internet Courses

If you have any administrative issues or questions related to taking internet or distance courses, please refer to York's Centre for Distance Education at (416) 736-5831 and <http://www.yorku.ca/laps/disted/>. Please review this site for new information, procedures, and services.

In particular, if you have questions regarding off-site exams, please visit <http://www.yorku.ca/laps/disted/offsiteExam>. Off-site exam request forms are due to the centre above, 10 business days before the scheduled exam date.

IMPORTANT YORK POLICIES:

Academic Honesty (Senate Policy)

LA & PS as a Faculty considers breaches of the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty to be serious matters. To quote the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty:

The Policy on Academic Honesty is a reaffirmation and clarification for members of the University of the general obligation to maintain the highest standards of academic honesty. It outlines the general responsibility of faculty to foster acceptable standards of academic conduct and of the student to be mindful of and abide by such standards.

Faculty members are encouraged to pursue suspected cases of academic honesty with formal charges. Students should, however, review the York Academic Honesty policy for themselves at: <http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/legislation/senate/acadhone.htm>

Students might also wish to review the interactive on-line Tutorial for students on academic integrity, at: <http://www.yorku.ca/academicintegrity/tutorial.htm>

Grade Component Deadline (Senate Policy)

The course assignment structure and grading scheme (i.e. kinds and weights of assignments, essays, exams, etc.) must be announced, and be available in writing, to students within the first two weeks of classes. Please see Important Dates at: <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/importantdates/fw05.htm>

Graded Feedback Rule (Senate Policy)

Under normal circumstances, some graded feedback worth at least 15% of the final grade for Fall, Winter or Summer term, and 30% for 'full year' courses in the Fall/Winter term should be received by students in all courses prior to the final withdrawal date from a course without receiving a grade, with the following exceptions:

- graduate or upper level undergraduate courses where course work typically, or at the instructor's discretion, consists of a single piece of work and/or is based predominantly (or solely) on student presentations;
- practicum courses;
- ungraded courses;
- courses in Faculties where the drop date occurs within the first three weeks of classes;
- courses which run on a compressed schedule (a course which accomplishes its academic credits of work at a rate of one credit hour per two calendar weeks or faster).

Note: Under unusual and/or unforeseeable circumstances which disrupt the academic norm, instructors are expected to provide grading schemes and academic feedback in the spirit of these regulations, as soon as possible.

For more information on the Graded Feedback Rule, please visit: <http://www.yorku.ca/secretariat/legislation/senate/gradfeed.htm>

20% Rule (Senate Rule)

No examination or test worth more than 20 % of the final grade will be given during the last two weeks of classes in a term, with the exception of classes which regularly meet Friday evenings or on the weekend (Saturday and/or Sunday at any time). For further information on the 20% Rule, please visit: <http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/examschedules/examinfo/twentypercent.htm>.

For further information on examination scheduling, please see "Notes" in the table:

Reappraisals

For reappraisal procedures and information, please visit the Office of the Registrar site at: <http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/services/policies/grade.htm>

Deferred Standing

Students who have experienced a misfortune or who are too ill to attend an examination in a course should not attempt to do so; they must pursue deferred standing. Other students should contact their home Faculty for information. For further information, please visit:
http://www.registrar.yorku.ca/services/ds_faq.htm

Students with Special Needs (Senate Policy)

York University is committed to making reasonable accommodations and adaptations in order to make equitable the educational experience of students with special needs and to promote their full integration into the campus community. Please alert the Course Director as soon as possible should you require special accommodations. For more information please go to:
<http://cds.info.yorku.ca/>
