Course Description:

This course explores the foundational social and behavioural knowledge and skills required for increasing organizational effectiveness and facilitating personal and organizational change. Relevant interventions will be examined at the individual, group, intra-group, and whole organization levels. Theoretical and practical elements related to organizational change and development, consulting, data gathering, diagnosis and feedback, action planning and implementation will be discussed. The course will also cover topics such as resistance to change, sustaining change, and the future of organizational development in the face of increasing complexity, changes in workforce demographics, and the changing nature of the work.

Prerequisites/Co-requisites:

For students in an Honours program, 78 credits, including AP/ADMS 2400 3.00 and AP/HRM 2600 3.00 or for other students, a grade of C+ or better in AP/ADMS 2400 3.00 and AP/HRM 2600 3.00.

Students are responsible for ensuring that they have these required prerequisites.

Students who do not have these prerequisites are at risk of being dropped from the course at any time during

Description of course evaluation components: Due on February 4Short essay (20%):

A list of current topics in organizational development and change will be provided. Students are asked to choose a topic from the list that interests them and write a maximum 2000 word essay on the subject. The essay should clarify the following: 1) why is the topic important or of interest?, 2) what are the latest research suggesting in relevance to the topic?, and 3) what are the future challenges on the topic that HR professionals/researchers should address? While the essay should be based on solid research, referenced in APA style format, students are encouraged to have a critical lens and add their own unique perspectives.

Change analysis (20%): Due on March 18

Topic: How did organizations manage change during the COVID-19 pandemic?

Choose one organization that you encountered or you were a member/customer of during the COVID-19 pandemic. Based on your observations, use what you have learned in this course to analyze the change that the organization went through to handle the pandemic. You can use various resources such as the organization's coverage in the news media or its public communications in your analysis. Please include the following sections: 1) A description of the challenge faced by the specific organization that forced it to change, 2) A summary of the change process the organization went through based on your knowledge, 3) A reflection of how the change process could have been improved. The essay should be referenced using the APA style. Excluding the references, please limit the essay to 2500 words.

Test 1: Test 1 will cover chapters, lectures, and any other course material covered up until week 6 in the course outline. This will be an online test that you can write remotely. The test will go live on February 25 at noon and will be in the format of essay questions. You will have 24 hours to upload your answers to e-class.

Test 2: Test 2 will cover chapters, lectures, and any other course material covered from test 1 up until week 13. This will be an online test that you can write remotely. The test will go live on April 8 at noon and will be in the format of essay questions. You will have 24 hours to upload your answers to e-class.

Course Policies:

Late Assignments:

Proper academic performance depends on students doing their work not only well but on time. Accordingly, assignments for this course must be received on the due date specified for the assignment. General Academic Policies

Important Dates:

The "Important Dates" pages listed below contain important information relevant to each term; in them, you will find classes and exams start/end dates, co-curricular days and reading week, add/drop deadlines, holidays, University closings and more:

<https://registrar.yorku.ca/enrol/dates>.

Academic Honesty:

Academic Integrity refers to a set of conventions that scholars follow in their work and which generate credibility, trust, and respect within the academic community. As a student, earning a university degree in a fair and ethical way also involves following these conventions.

Violations of academic integrity can lead to disciplinary actions under York University's Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. Effective time management and study skills can help students avoid feeling desperate and engaging in actions that violate academic integrity. See the Time Management module.

Students may also wish to review the interactive Academic Honesty module, which can be accessed here: SPARK course in Moodle.

Deferred Exams:

If a student is unable to complete an exam due to an illness, a personal/family emergency, or religious observance they may submit a request for deferred standing. Within 7 calendar days of a missed final exam, students seeking to defer a final HRM exam must:

1. Submit a request online using the HRM Deferred Standing system:
<http://shrm.laps.yorku.ca/students/deferred-exam-request/>.
2. Submit the Deferred Standing Agreement (DSA) form along with supporting documentation (ex. Attending Physician's Statement) to the School of Human Resource Management. Students will be notified via email about the status of their request once their forms have been processed by the Undergraduate Program Director.

Religious Observance Accommodation:

York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of the community and making accommodations for observances of special significance. For further information on accommodation procedures required due to religious commitment, and the schedule of dates visit:
