ADMS 1010: EXPLORING THE FUNCTIONS OF BUSINESS

Winter 2021 Course Outline¹ (Section Q: Wednesday 11:30am-2:30pm)

Course Director: Prof. Eytan Lasry

Email: eytan@yorku.ca

Virtual Office Hours: Wednesday 3-4pm or by appointment (via Zoom)

Course Coordinator: Prof. Joel Marcus

Location: Zoom meeting room (link to be posted on eClass).

Please note that this course depends on remote teaching and learning. There will be no in-person interaction or activities on campus. Classes will run synchronously at the scheduled meeting time on Zoom every week and you are expected to be available during class time for lectures and group presentations and to participate in the course through video conferencing. Lectures are NOT recorded for asynchronous viewing.

Technical Requirements: Stable, higher-speed internet connection as well as a computer with webcam and microphone, or a smart device with these features. Several platforms will be used in this course (e.g., eClass, Zoom, etc.) through which students will interact with the course materials, the course director, as well as with one another. Please review the syllabus to determine how the class meets (in whole or in part), and how office hours and presentations will be conducted.

Course description

This course provides a broad survey of the functional areas of business by engaging students in a critical discourse about management, its sub-disciplines, and the current issues and future challenges facing business. This discourse is reflected in the course readings, which pair classic management articles with writings from alternative or contradictory perspectives. Using a variety of media we will also examine current news stories to illustrate and assess the practical relevance of each of the management ideas presented. Students will be challenged to develop, articulate, and support their own thinking in relation to contemporary business issues. The course is intended to prepare students for success in the upper-level BCom course requirements.

Learning objectives

By the end of this course students should be able to:

¹ NB: This syllabus is subject to change as deemed necessary by the instructor

- Describe the scope and central concepts of management and the functional domains of business
- Identify and analyze the interplay of key economic, social, and environmental trends facing business, and their implications for different functional areas
- Critically analyze management texts and be able to describe and formulate alternative perspectives on a given management issue
- Write a clear and persuasive argument to support a chosen position or course of action
- Identify management area(s) and issues that are of particular interest in relation to upper level course concentration

Required text and readings

1. Dyer, L. (2019). Critical Thinking for Business Students. 3rd ed. Captus Press.
2. Article and chapter readings as listed in Course Calendar available online

Course evaluation

Weekly writing assignments	20%	Weekly
Midterm exam	25%	Friday Feb. 26
Group presentation	20%	Weeks 9-12
Final exam	35%	Final exam period

Weekly writing assignments (20% of course grade)

These weekly assignments are designed to help you absorb the course material while improving the effectiveness of your writing. Completed assignments are to be 1-page single-spaced maximum and will be graded for content, grammar, writing style, and formatting – details will be provided in class. The assignments are based on the weekly readings and will be posted on eClass one week before they are due, which is 9:00PM the day before the related lecture. Assignments must be uploaded to the relevant Moodle dropbox. The 20% writing assignment grade is broken down as follows:

Completion of assignments (10 weeks)	10%
Two (2) assignment randomly chosen for grading	10%

Midterm exam (25% of course grade)

The midterm will be a closed-book 1.5-hour exam written during Week 7. The exam will test material covered in weeks 1-5 including all assigned readings and all lecture content and may include a combination of multiple choice, short/long written answer, and case-based questions. Additional details will be provided in class.

Students who miss the midterm exam for any reason will be provided one (1) opportunity to write a makeup midterm exam. You will be required to submit written justification for why the exam was missed within three (3) days of the exam, and approval to write a makeup is at the discretion of the course director or relevant office. If you are approved to write you will be sent details regarding time and/or location of your makeup. If you do not receive an acknowledgement of your request within a few days of submitting documentation you should follow up with the course director. In all cases it is the student's responsibility to proactively address a missed or alternate exam situation. Students who do not write either the regular or makeup midterm exam as scheduled will receive a grade of zero (0) on this component.

Group presentation (20% of course grade)

The group presentation will be based on a current affairs issue and groups will be asked to defend alternate positions with respect to that issue in a debate-style format. Presentations will be 10 minutes in length and will be held during the last four lectures (Weeks 9-12). All group members are required to actively participate in the presentation. Additional details will be provided in class.

The course director will assign randomly constructed groups during the third week of class. The group is expected to manage all of its organizational and work assignment tasks with fairness and respect. The course director will be happy to mediate group issues provided assistance is requested in a timely manner.

Final exam (35% of course grade)

The final exam will be a closed-book 2-hour exam and will be scheduled by the Registrar during the final exam period – (April 14-28, 2020). The format may include a combination of multiple choice, short/long written answer, and case-based questions.

Late assignments

Assignments not submitted by the due date/time will receive a grade of zero.

Grade Reappraisals

Students may, with sufficient academic grounds, request that a grade in the course be reappraised. A written request for reappraisal must be submitted to the course director within one week of receiving your grade, and must specify (a) what the student would like re-graded (i.e. specific questions, entire exam, etc.) and (b) a clear justification for why re-grading is necessary. The course director may refuse to reappraise if sufficient academic grounds are not demonstrated. Students need to be aware that a request for a grade reappraisal may result in the original grade being raised, lowered or confirmed. For further information see: <http://calendars.registrar.yorku.ca/2014-2015/policies/petitions/index.htm>

Turnitin

In this course all electronic submissions to eClass dropboxes will be screened using turnitin prior to evaluation. turnitin is a plagiarism detection service that faculty use on a voluntary basis. Additional student information can be found at <https://moodle.yorku.ca/students/documentation/turnitin.html>
