Course Description	The purpose of this course is to introduce you to a set of topics and policy issues pertaining to the macro-economy, and to provide you with the theoretical tools and foundations to understand them. We will study the structure of the national economy and its measurement, economic growth and the disparities in the wealth of nations, business cycles and the determination of the level of national income in the short run, and the effects of fiscal policy on macroeconomic variables. The primary approach of the course is to stress the micro-foundations behind the macro-economy, by modeling the behavior of rational agents. Some emphasis will be placed on the Canadian economy.
Textbook	The required textbook is Macroeconomics (6 th Canadian Edition), by Stephen D. Williamson, Pearson Canada, 2021.
Evaluation	Online Midterm Exam (worth 40%): Wednesday, October 27, 2021 , class time Online Final Exam (worth 60%): December exam period The midterm exam will be held during class time REMOTELY. There will be no make-up exam for the midterm. For students that provide appropriate and timely documentation for missing the midterm, the weight will be transferred to the final exam. The date/time of the REMOTELY held final exam will be set at a later date and announced well in advance. The final exam will include all the material covered in the course. A student that misses the final exam and requests deferred standing, must consult the Guidelines for Deferred Standing , available at: http://econ.laps.yorku.ca/students/academic-policies-procedure/deferred-standing/ Students who may require further extensions or accommodation will have to submit a formal petition to the Faculty. The grades may be scaled to conform to the regulations of the Faculty of LAPS.

Students shall note the following:

- Zoom is hosted on servers in the U.S. This includes recordings done through Zoom.
- If you have privacy concerns about your data, provide only your first name or a nickname when you join a session.
- The system is configured in a way that all participants are automatically notified when a session is being recorded. In other words, a session cannot be recorded without you knowing about it.

Please review the technology requirements and FAQs for Moodle.

Policy on Zoom Lecture Recordings

Please note in your policy that 1) the recordings should be used for educational purposes only and as a means for enhancing accessibility; 2) students do not have permission to duplicate, copy and/or distribute the recordings outside of the class (these acts can violate not only copyright laws but also FIPPA); and 3) all recordings will be destroyed after the end of classes.

Academic honesty and integrity

In this course, we strive to maintain academic integrity to the highest extent possible. Please familiarize yourself with the meaning of academic integrity by completing SPARK's Academic Integrity module at the beginning of the course. Breaches of academic integrity range from cheating to plagiarism (i.e., the improper crediting of another's work, the representation of another's ideas as your own, etc.). All instances of academic dishonesty in this course will be reported to the appropriate university authorities, and can be punishable according to the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.
