COURSE WEBSITE	To be updated once available

Course Description

This course focuses on assessing risk and determining effective strategies for individuals to manage risk. Through a case study students will have an opportunity to experience what professional advisors in the field undergo on a regular basis. Ethics cases are also presented and debated with the inclusion of CFP® professionals. Other finance topics are also discussed.

Prerequisites:

AP/ADMS 3541 3.00. Pre/Corequisite: AP/ADMS 3531 3.00.

Ideally, the student should also have taken ADMS 2610, which is a required course for the BCom.

Learning Outcomes

This course aims to provide an experience that will allow students to familiarise themselves with how things work in practice. Students will get a practical view of how to determine insurance needs and will learn how to apply ethics in decision making.

Communications

For general course questions and discussion, we are using the discussion forums on the eClass course website. The instructor will aim to respond to your comments within 2 business days; other students can reply earlier. No responses will be provided the day an assignment is due.

Before you send a message, make sure to read the course outline and the discussion forums to find answers to questions.

If the question is personal to you, please contact the course instructor. All email communication must follow the following guidelines to ensure prompt and accurate responses:

- Subject heading must begin with “ADMS 4507” or you will not receive a response.
- Clearly identify who you are (full name and student number).
- For reasons of privacy and confidentiality, please email from your York account.

Emails will be returned within 2 business days. If it has been 2 days and you have not heard a response, please resend the email and politely let the instructor know it has been missed.

Technical Requirements

Several platforms will be used in this course (e.g., eClass, Zoom, etc.) through which students will interact with the course materials, the course director, as well as with one another. Students are asked to appear on video during zoom sessions. In addition to stable, high-speed Internet connection, students will need a computer with a webcam and microphone, and/or a smart device with these features

Zoom Sessions

Zoom session dates are noted in the course schedule. The online Zoom sessions will take place during the scheduled class time: Wednesday 7:15-8:30PM (Toronto time). We aim to begin at 7PM; however, I will leave the first 15 minutes for questions and other open discussion.

These are interactive sessions where you have an opportunity to ask questions and review practice problems as well as discuss the insurance report.

Please register now for Zoom. You should always enter Zoom via the York University website. York University has a license for Zoom that allows faculty members to run classes with up to 300 people.

The codes and links to enter the class are available on eClass. All you will need to do is start Zoom, click the button for enter a class and then enter the code for that particular session.

Students shall note the following:

- Zoom is hosted on servers in the United States and Canada. Recordings done since May 1, 2022 are stored in Canada. For more information, please refer to the notes on Zoom Privacy and Security provided by Information Security at York.

- If you have privacy concerns about your data, provide only your first name or a nickname when you join a session.
- The system is configured in a way that all participants are automatically notified when a session is being recorded. In other words, a session cannot be recorded without you knowing about it.

Course Assessment Components

Quiz

There will be one quiz in week 2. The purpose of this quiz is to act as a reminder of basic concepts from previous courses that are required to understand this course. The quiz will be available for a 24 hour period and you will have multiple attempts within this time frame. Your highest attempt will count towards the final grade.

These must be done individually. Students who register late for this course must email the instructor and we will arrange a time for you take quiz you missed.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam will take place in week 6. Details will be posted on the eClass course website. The midterm exam covers weeks 1-5, inclusive. This must be done individually.

There will be no make-up midterm examination. Students who cannot write due to legitimate reasons will have the weight of the midterm transferred to the final.

Comprehensive Insurance Report

The major component of this course is the comprehensive insurance report, which is broken down into separate components with 2 assignments, the final report and the final presentation. The goal is to try to gain an understanding and experience of how insurance assessments are performed from start to finish in practice. The student will assess the family's goals and need for the following insurance types: life, health, disability, critical illness, household and automobile insurance.

A complete description of the assignment and materials will be posted on eClass.

Final Exam (Take home, due date Sunday, December 10th at 5PM)

The final exam will be a written scenario based assessment. It will be posted on eClass and you will have 2 days to complete it.

Submitting Assignments and Reports

All submissions will be made on directly on eClass. Instructions for each assignment will be provided separately.

Please note that assignments submitted after the deadline will lose five percentage points, and if they are very late, penalties will be higher.

Extensions for submitting an assignment or report after the due date with no penalty may be granted on a case-by-case basis. Approval must be obtained from the course director prior to the due date of the assignment or report.

Marking of Assignments

1. Marking will be done on the basis of percentages as outlined in the Faculty calendar.
2. Assignments will be marked, graded and returned in about two weeks. The comprehensive insurance reports will take longer to review and be returned.

Finance Area policy on DSA (Deferred Standing Agreement)

It is the policy of the Admin Studies finance area that instructors will NOT sign a DSA form if you miss both the midterm and final exams. Students in this situation will need to petition for deferred exam, late withdrawal, or a remedy appropriate to their circumstances. If the midterm is missed due to illness, appropriate documentation must be provided to the course director within two weeks of the missed work. Do NOT hand it into the office.

Course Schedule

Please note – the topical coverage and evaluation scheme is subject to change. If there will be any changes an announcement will be made as soon as possible noting the details.

Land Acknowledgment

York University recognizes that many Indigenous Nations have longstanding relationships with the territories upon which York University campuses are located that precede the establishment of York University. York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nation, Inuit, and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region (LA&PS Land Acknowledgement).

Understanding the Land Acknowledgement.

Course Policies

All students are expected to familiarize themselves with the following information:

- Student Rights & Responsibilities
- Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Please also review the following course policies:

Academic Integrity

In this course, we strive to maintain academic honesty to the highest extent possible. Please familiarize yourself with the meaning of academic integrity by completing SPARK's Academic Integrity module at the beginning of the course. Breaches of academic honesty range from cheating to plagiarism (i.e., the improper crediting of another's work, the representation of another's ideas as your own, etc.). All instances of academic dishonesty in this course will be reported to the appropriate University authorities and can be punishable according to the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

Accessibility

While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to achieve excellence, the University recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to perform at their best. The University encourages students with disabilities to register with Student Accessibility Services to discuss their accommodation needs as early as possible in the term to establish the recommended academic accommodations that will be communicated to Course Directors through their Letter of Accommodation (LOA).

Please let your instructor know as early as possible in the term if you anticipate requiring academic accommodation so that we can discuss how to consider your accommodation needs within the context of this course. Sufficient notice is needed so that reasonable steps for accommodation can be discussed. Accommodations for tests/exams normally require three (3) weeks (or 21 days) before the scheduled test/exam to arrange.

Religious Observance Accommodation

York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of the community, and making reasonable and appropriate accommodations to adherents for observances of special significance. Should any of the dates specified in this syllabus for course examinations, tests, or deadlines conflict with a date of religious significance, please contact the instructor within the first three (3) weeks of class. If the date falls within the formal examination periods, you must complete and submit a Religious Accommodation for Examination Form at least three (3) weeks before the start of the exam period.

Intellectual Property

Course materials are designed for use as part of this particular course at York University and are the intellectual property of the instructor unless otherwise stated. Third-party copyrighted materials (such as book chapters, journal articles, music, videos, etc.) have either been licensed for use in this course or fall under an exception or limitation in Canadian copyright law. Students may not publish, post on an Internet site, sell, or otherwise distribute any course materials or work without the instructor's express permission. Course materials should only be used by students enrolled in this course.

Copying this material for distribution (e.g., uploading material to a commercial third-party website) may lead to a charge of misconduct according to York's Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty, and/or legal consequences for copyright violations.

Student Conduct in the Learning Environment

York University is committed to fostering teaching and learning environments that are free of disruptive and/or harassing behaviour, are physically safe, and conducive to effective teaching and learning. Students and instructors are expected to maintain a professional relationship characterized by courtesy, civility, and mutual respect and to refrain from actions disruptive to such a relationship. Individuals who fail to adhere to such standards and who violate University or public law may be subject to disciplinary action by the University.

For more information, see the policies on Disruptive and/or Harassing Behaviour in Academic Situations, the Student Conduct and Responsibilities, and the Code of Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Netiquette for eClass and Online Learning

Students and instructors have a joint responsibility to create and maintain a welcoming and inclusive learning environment. All students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Please review and familiarize yourself with behaviours that support "netiquette" in virtual classrooms by consulting the Guide to Netiquette and Student Guide to eLearning.

Student Notice of Recording for Online Teaching and Learning

Activities for this course involve recording, in partial fulfillment of the course learning outcomes. Images, audio, text/chat messaging that have been recorded may be used and/or made available by the University to students enrolled in the course and those supporting the course for the purpose of materials review, for assessment, etc. Recordings will be managed according to the University's Common Record Schedule and will be securely destroyed when no longer needed by the University. Your personal information is protected in accordance with York University's Guidelines on Access of Information and Protection of Privacy and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. Access to online materials, including recordings or live meetings, is subject to York University's Senate Policy on Computing and Information Technology Facilities.

The University will use reasonable means to protect the security and confidentiality of the recorded information, but cannot provide a guarantee of such due to factors beyond the University's control, such as recordings being forwarded, copied, intercepted, circulated, disclosed, or stored without the University's knowledge or permission, or the introduction of malware into computer system which could potentially damage or disrupt the computer, networks, and security settings. The University is not responsible for connectivity/technical difficulties or loss of data associated with your hardware, software, or Internet connection.

By engaging in course activities that involve recording, you are consenting to the use of your appearance, image, text/chat messaging, and voice and/or likeness in the manner and under the conditions specified herein. In the case of a live stream recording, if you choose not to have your image or audio recorded, you may disable the audio and video functionality. If you choose to participate using a pseudonym instead of your real name, you must disclose the pseudonym to your instructor in advance to facilitate class participation.

You are not permitted to disclose the link to/URL of an event or an event session recording or copies of recording to anyone, for any reason. Recordings are available only to authorized individuals who have been directly provided the above instructions/link for their use. Recordings for personal use, required to facilitate your learning and preparation of personal course/lecture notes, may not be shared with others without the permission of the instructor or event coordinator, and may not be published, posted, linked to, or otherwise made available online, including on social media feeds, even if those feeds are private.
