Required Textbook: Williamson, Stephen, D., Macroeconomics, Sixth Canadian Edition, Pearson Canada, 2020. Fifth edition also works.

Course Description:

This course continues from AP/ECON 2400 3.00 to analyze further issues in macroeconomics. Topics include business cycle theories and the role of macroeconomic policies, unemployment, and inter-temporal issues in macroeconomics:

- Saving, Investment, and Government Deficits: Chapters 9, 10, and 11.
- Money and Business Cycles: Chapters 12, 13, and 14.
- Search and Unemployment: Chapter 6.

Evaluation:

Let M = your mark from the mid-term exam and F = your mark from the final exam. Your grade will be determined by the following formula: Total mark = Max (0.4 M + 0.6 F, F).

- Midterm date: February 27 in class.
- There will be no make-up mid-term exam. Students absent from the mid-term exam will have the weight transferred to their final exam.
- The final exam will cover all material discussed in this course. The date of exam will be scheduled by the Registrar's Office.
- The deferred exam for the final exam will be granted only for medical reasons. In such cases students should submit a deferred exam application together with the supporting documents (attending physician's statement) to the Department of Economics to my attention. The date and time of the deferred exam will be set later. Students who may require further extensions or accommodation will have to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

- Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to Program or Faculty grades distribution profiles.
