Land Acknowledgment

York University recognizes that many Indigenous Nations have longstanding relationships with the territories upon which York University campuses are located that precede the establishment of York University. York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nation, Inuit, and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region (LA&PS Land Acknowledgement).

Course description This course aims at equipping students with basic tools to use economic theory in analyzing important macroeconomic issues. We shall discuss topics such as measurement of macroeconomic data, aggregate production and spending in macroeconomics, national savings, investment and net exports, interest rate and exchange rate behaviours in the long run, and economic growth.

Prerequisites Prerequisite: AP/ECON 1000 3.00, AP/ECON 1010 3.00, and AP/ECON

1530 3.00, or equivalents. Prerequisite or corequisite: AP/ECON 1540 3.00. Course credit exclusions: GL/ECON 3240 6.00 (prior to Fall 2014), SB/ECON 2000 3.00.

Organization

Please note that this is an in-person course. All exams will be in-person. There will be NO online alternatives. We will use eClass for posting course materials only (including presentation slides to facilitate lectures, practice problem sets and solutions, case studies with solutions, practice exams and solutions, etc.). You should check posted materials on a regular basis.

Technical Requirements

Several platforms will be used in this course (e.g., eClass, Zoom, etc.) where students will interact with course materials, the course director/TA, as well as with each other. Need technical help? Check out the following helpful links for information resources and support:

- Student Guide to eClass
- Zoom@YorkU Best Practices
- Zoom@YorkU User Reference Guide
- eLearning Getting Started (LA&PS eServices)
- Student Guide to Remote and Online Learning

To determine Internet connection and speed, there are online tests, such as Speedtest, that can be run. If you need technical assistance, please consult the University Information Technology (UIT) Student Services webpage or write to askit@yorku.ca.

Topics covered

We shall cover Ch. 1 (introduction), 2 (macroeconomics variables and measurements), 3 (classical model of the LR closed economy), 6 (classical model of the LR small open economy), 8-9 (economic growth and the Solow growth model).

You should note that although I use the textbook as the basis for the topics we are discussing for the course, I will also cover some materials that are relevant for the understanding of the various topics but are not covered in the textbook. Roughly about 30% of the course materials will be my own materials (covered in the lectures) that provide you with a fuller understanding of the topics that correspond to the various chapters of the textbook readings. Therefore, it is imperative that you do not only read the textbook but also attend all the lectures and understand the materials there.

Presentation slides will be posted to facilitate the lectures. These presentation slides are NOT meant to be self-sufficient but should be considered an aid to facilitate the lectures. During the lectures, I will show you more detailed analyses with additional handwritten slides that are NOT included in the posted presentation slides.

Evaluation

In-class Test 1 (Sep 30, Tues, 10-11:15am) 20%
In-class Test 2 (Oct 21, Tues, 10-11:15am) 20%
In-person Final Exam (3 hrs, Final Exam Period TBA, cumulative) 60%

The midterm exam will take place during class time. There will be no make-up for missing a test. If you miss the any test for any reason, the weight will be transferred to the final. If you miss the final exam, you will need to request a deferred exam and upon approval you will be given a deferred exam. To request exam deferral, use the following link to the Mach form:

https://www.yorku.ca/laps/econ/undergraduateprograms/academic-resources/department-policies/deferredstanding/

Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to Program or Faculty grades distribution profiles.

Course Policies

Please review the course policies in this section. All students are expected to familiarize themselves with the following information:

- Student Rights & Responsibilities
- Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Academic Integrity and Conduct

Academic integrity is a fundamental and important value of York University. To maintain a fair and honest learning environment, you are responsible for understanding and upholding academic integrity in all courses and academic activities. You are encouraged to connect with reliable oncampus resources that support your coursework and academic honesty. To better understand the serious consequences of breaching academic honesty policies, familiarize yourself with the Senate Policy on Academic Conduct. You can learn more about upholding academic integrity in your courses by exploring SPARK: Academic Integrity Module, LA&PS Academic Honesty and Academic Integrity for Students.

Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI)

Students are not permitted to use generative artificial intelligence (AI) in this course. Submitting any work created (in whole or part) through the use of generative AI tools will be considered a violation of York University's Senate Policy on Academic Conduct. Using AI apps such as Microsoft Copilot, ChatGPT, DALL-E, translation software among others to complete academic work without your instructor's knowledge or permission, is considered a breach under York's Academic Conduct Policy. For more information, please review AI Technology & Academic Integrity: Information for Students.

If you're not sure whether using an AI app for your academic work is acceptable, it is recommended that you:

- Carefully review the guidelines for your assessments
- Check for any messages from your instructor on eClass
- Ask your instructor or TA if they are permitting the use of these tools

Accessibility

York University is committed to creating a learning environment which provides equal opportunity to all members of its community. If you anticipate or experience any barriers to learning in this course, please discuss your concerns with your instructor as early as possible. For students with disabilities, contact Student Accessibility Services to coordinate academic accommodations and services. Accommodations will be communicated to Course Directors through a Letter of Accommodation (LOA). Accommodations for tests/exams normally require three (3) weeks (or 21 days) before the scheduled test/exam to arrange. To learn more, please visit Accommodated Exam/Test Scheduling.

Religious Observance Accommodation

York University is committed to respecting the religious beliefs and practices of all members of the community and making reasonable and appropriate accommodations to adherents for observances of days of religious significance. Should any of the dates specified in this syllabus for course assignments, tests, or deadlines conflict with a date of religious significance, please contact the instructor not less than two (2) weeks (or 14 days) prior to the date for which accommodation is sought. If the requested accommodation is for an exam or falls within the formal examination periods, you must complete and submit a Religious Accommodation Agreement (PDF) at least three (3) weeks (or 21 days) before the start of the exam period.

Academic Consideration for Missed Course Work

This policy applies to course assessments worth 20% or less of your overall course grade and does not apply to exams held during the final examination period. Students may self-declare two (2) 7-day consideration periods each 12-week term and one (1) 7-day consideration period per six-week term. An Attending Physician's Statement (APS) is not required for these self-declared absences. However, an instructor may request a signed APS for the final examination period, coursework worth more than 20% of the course grade and missed work outside of the self-declared academic consideration period(s).

Students can submit their self-declaration(s) for academic consideration using eClass. Students are then responsible for contacting the instructor no later than two (2) business days after the end of the consideration period(s) to arrange details of any accommodation for missed coursework. If you do not do this, you may get a zero (0) on the missed work. Where courses have built-in accommodations already established, the instructor may decline providing additional accommodations under this policy. For further details, please review the Policy on Academic Consideration for Missed Course Work.

Final Examination Identification Policy

For final exams in this course, you must present a valid York University official photo identification card (YU-card) to verify your identity. Also, you will need to sign the exam's attendance roster. Learn more about preparing for your exams by reviewing York's Policies on Conduct of Examinations as well as the Registrar's Office Examination Tip Sheet.

Intellectual Property

Course materials are designed for use as part of this particular course at York University and are the intellectual property of the instructor unless otherwise stated. Third-party copyrighted materials (such as book chapters, journal articles, music, videos, etc.) have either been licensed for use in this course or fall under an exception or limitation in Canadian copyright law. Students may not publish, post on an Internet site, sell, or otherwise distribute any course materials or work without the instructor's express permission. Course materials should only be used by students enrolled in this course.

Copying this material for distribution (e.g., uploading material to a commercial third-party website) may lead to a charge of misconduct according to York's Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Senate Policy on Academic Conduct, and/or legal consequences for copyright violations.

Student Support and Resources

York University offers a wide range of student supports resources and services, including everything from writing workshops and peer mentorship to wellness support and career guidance. Explore the links below to access these on-campus resources:
