Objectives

The objective of this course is to study the effects of various market structures on economic performance and conduct of modern business enterprise. In this course we apply economic theory to analyze factors that determine industry structure, and strategies that companies might use to acquire and use market power in different market situations. Specific topics covered in this course include pricing and product differentiation strategies, strategic interactions among competing firms, advertising, vertical integration and the role of government competition policy.

All class materials will be posted on eClass:

Prerequisites

AP/ECON 1000 3.0 or equivalent

I expect that you will be able to perform basic calculus, including simple partial derivatives.

Textbook and lecture notes

Modern Industrial Organization, by D.W. Carlton and J.M. Perloff, 4th Edition, Addison Wesley, 2005

The course will cover Chapters 1-12, 14, 16, 18.

Although the lectures will generally follow the textbook, they will depart frequently. The additional material will be included in slides. The most priority should be on lecture slides and then the text.

Supplementary readings will be posted on eClass. The supplementary readings will serve more than a single purpose. They will find real world examples of some of the concepts we discuss in class. They will also include written work by leading economists on topics that offers new evidence and interpretation of the models and debates presented in class.

Evaluation

Midterm test 45%

Final Exam 55%

The course grade will be based on the midterm test (45%) and the final exam (55%).

Under no circumstances I will shift weights from midterm test/quizzes to the final exam.

Students can get up to 5% bonus mark for participation in in-class discussions

Practice quizzes and problems

Every week I will post practice problems with solution for the covered material.

I will also post a weekly practice on-line quiz on eClass.

Both practice problems and quizzes will not be graded. Although you will see your quiz score among your grades, these are only for your reference and they will not be used in your final course grade calculations.

Midterm test

The midterm test will be held on the following date:

- October 28 (Wednesday) at 7:00pm during regular class time.

Absence from the midterm test

Students who cannot attend the midterm test at the stipulated date and time must inform me via email before the test and provide medical (or other) documentation within one week of the missed test.

If it is agreed that your absence was justified, you will be allowed to complete part B of the final exam (see below), which will serve as a makeup midterm test.

Final exam

The final exam will be 3-hours long and will consist of two parts (parts A and B).

Students who completed the midterm tests during the term will only write part A of the final exam. Students who missed two midterm tests will write parts A and B of the final exam, if the permission to write part B was received from me during the term.

Part A of the exam is mandatory for all students and will be based on the course material covered after the midterm test. Students will write part A during the first 90 minutes of the final exam.

Part B of the final exam (80 minutes long) will be held after all students hand in part A. Only students who missed the midterm test will be required to write part B of the final exam. This part will only cover course material that is relevant for the midterm test.

IMPORTANT COURSE INFORMATION

The Senate Committee on Curriculum & Academic Standards (CCAS) provides a Student Information Sheet that includes:

- York's Academic Conduct Policy and Procedures
- Access/Disability
- Religious Observance Accommodation
- Student Code of Conduct

Additional information:

- Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
- Alternate Exam and Test Scheduling
- Grading Scheme and Feedback Policy

The Senate Grading Scheme and Feedback Policy stipulates that (a) the grading scheme (i.e. kinds and weights of assignments, essays, exams, etc.) be announced, and be available in writing, within the first two weeks of class, and that, (b) under normal circumstances, graded feedback worth at least 15% of the final grade for Fall, Winter or Summer Term, and 30% for 'full year' courses offered in the Fall/Winter Term be received by students in all courses prior to the final withdrawal date from a course without receiving a grade.

- "20% Rule"
No examinations or tests collectively worth more than 20% of the final grade in a course will be given during the final 14 calendar days of classes in a term. The exceptions to the rule are classes which regularly meet Friday evenings or on Saturday and/or Sunday at any time, and courses offered in the compressed summer terms.
- Final course grades may be adjusted to conform to Program or Faculty grades distribution profiles.

FACULTY OF LIBERAL ARTS AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS
Guidelines for Deferred Standing
(Final exam and term work extensions)

A Deferred Standing (extension) is a process by which students who are either unable to write their final examination at the scheduled time or submit term work before the Faculty deadline to submit final grades reach an agreement with the course director for an extension to the deadline. The course director may grant deferred standing in the course. In doing so, a date is set for writing the exam or submitting the outstanding work. In order to qualify for Deferred Standing, a student must complete the standard Deferred Standing Agreement form. This form is available at the Office of the Registrar and the Economics Undergraduate Office (1144 Vari Hall).

Deadline:

Senate Policy states, “Normally requests for deferred standing must be communicated within one week following a missed examination or the last day to submit course work” (the period during which the University is officially closed for December holidays and statutory holidays is not counted in the determination of deadline days).

It is the responsibility of students to make arrangements with the course director to complete the course and file the Deferred Standing Agreement form with the appropriate departmental/unit office by the deadline specified on the form. Appropriate Documentation verifying the circumstances for the missed final examination must be provided at the time of requesting the Deferred Standing from the Course Director.

WHAT IS APPROPRIATE DOCUMENTATION?

MEDICAL CIRCUMSTANCES:

Exams missed due to medical circumstances must be supported by an Attending Physician’s Statement downloadable from the York University’s registrar site (see the attached copy). The physician’s statement must include the following information:

- i) Full name, mailing address, telephone number of the physician.
- ii) State the nature of the illness and its duration (i.e., specific dates covered).
- iii) An indication of whether the illness and/or medication prescribed would have SERIOUSLY affected the student’s ability to study and perform over the period in question.

NOTE: the physician’s office may be contacted to verify that the statement was actually completed by the physician.

NON-MEDICAL CIRCUMSTANCES:

Exams missed due to non-medical circumstances must be supported by appropriate documentation, i.e. death certificates, obituary notice, automobile accident reports, airline/bus ticket receipt for emergency travel (with the date of booking on the ticket), etc. Airline/train/bus ticket/receipts for emergency travel must indicate destination, departure, and return dates. Having to work at the time of the exam or non-emergency travels are not considered valid excuses for missing the exam.

If the course director does not agree to consider requests for deferred standing students then may file a petition with the relevant Faculty-level committee for consideration within the established deadline.
