Welcome to Organizational Behaviour!

BASIC INFORMATION

Course Director:	Michele Lustman, PhD (mlustman@yorku.ca)
Section Day/Time:	Wednesdays, 11:30am-2:20pm [location available on eClass]
Exams:	On campus, in person
Course Web Site:	eclass.yorku.ca

IMPORTANT NOTES

- ▶ Communication with the Course Director: Please include your full name, student number, and the course/section enrolled in. Needless to say, proper conduct of behaviour is expected.
 - If responding to an eClass email announcement, please ensure to replace the recipient address with your Course Director's email, or else the message will not be delivered to them.
- ▶ About course registration: Please direct all registration questions to the main office of the School of Administrative Studies (apsas@yorku.ca). Course Directors (instructors) cannot enroll or approve your enrollment to the course. If the section is full, the best strategy to enroll in the class is to visit the online course registration system regularly until a space becomes available. Students are expected to keep up with the course submission deadlines regardless of timing of enrolment.
- ▶ Note that students can write exams and submit any work only in the section in which they are registered.
- ▶ The outline and textbook for this section might vary from other sections in this course. Students bear the sole responsibility for keeping up with the material covered in the section in which they are registered.
- ▶ Times and deadlines are in Toronto time.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The learning objectives of this course are to:

- ▶ develop your understanding of major concepts and theories of individual and group behavior in organizations that guide management thinking today.
- ▶ develop your ability to apply these concepts and theories to recognize, analyze and suggest solutions to organizational problems.
- ▶ assist you in developing skills that will help you become a successful and contributing member of an organization (manager or otherwise).

These objectives will be accomplished through the provided course content, reading assignments, discussions, and activities.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Check for updates on the section eClass for information about lectures, materials.

In-Person Lectures/Classes

This section of the course is offered in a LECT format, where classes are offered in-person (on campus).

Internet access might be required for some access to course activities.

Submission deadlines

There are submission deadlines for activities and assignments. Details will be provided on eClass.

Textbook

We are using the 12th edition of the textbook. Pages provided are for that edition. Other editions of other OB textbook are not an appropriate alternative.

Exams

Exams are in-person (on campus). Check eClass closer to the date of the exam date for the room location where you will be writing the exam (multiple rooms might be used).

Office Hours

An Attending Physician's Statement (APS) is required (a doctor's note or other medical documentation are not accepted) for deferral based on unforeseen medical circumstances.
- ▶ ALL deferral concerns should be addressed to the main office (apsas@yorku.ca).

REMOTE LEARNING INFORMATION

Several platforms might be used in this course (e.g., eClass, Zoom, etc.) through which students will interact with the course materials, the course director, as well as with one another. Students are required to have access to minimum technology requirements to complete online activities and assignments.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS & SUPPORT:

When meeting online or completing coursework online, please ensure that you have access to a stable, higher-speed Internet connection and an appropriate computer/device that can support your learning. Please note that smartphones/smart devices apps (such as the eClass and Zoom apps) may have different/limited functionality compared to their use on a laptop or desktop. A webcam/camera and microphone may be needed for certain communication.

- Check your internet connection speed: www.speedtest.net

Disclaimers:

- If you have privacy concerns about your data, provide only your first name or a nickname when you join a session (inform the course director in advance).
- The system is configured in a way that all participants are automatically notified when a session is being recorded. In other words, a session cannot be recorded without you knowing about it.

IMPORTANT SCHOOL AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES & INFORMATION

COMMON COURSE POLICIES

Check out common course policies for ADMS/DEMS courses on the School website:

<https://www.yorku.ca/laps/sas/academic-resources/common-course-policies/>

Including information regarding:

- Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
- Religious Accommodation
- and more

COURSE REAPPRAISAL POLICY

General reappraisal policies are listed in the Common Course Policies. Specific for AP/ADMS2400:

- Midterm Exam reappraisal requests (before the final exam period) – see your section’s website / announcements.
- Final Exam reappraisal requests – please do not contact your Course Director for final exam reappraisals or reappraisals of midterm exams after the last day of the term. All such reappraisal requests must be done through the main office.

ACADEMIC CONDUCT, HONESTY & INTEGRITY

Academic Honesty/Integrity: Academic integrity is a fundamental and important value of York University. To maintain a fair and honest learning environment, you are responsible for understanding and upholding academic integrity in all courses and academic activities. Please familiarize yourself with the meaning of academic integrity at York. You can learn more about upholding academic integrity in your courses by exploring LA&PS Advice for Students regarding Academic Honesty and Academic Integrity for Students. To better understand the serious consequences of breaching academic honesty policies, familiarize yourself with the Senate Policy on Academic Conduct.

Suspected breaches of academic conduct and honesty will be investigated and pursued; significant penalties will be applied when a breach has been found to have occurred. Following these simple rules will help you avoid breaches of academic honesty:

- Complete your work well in advance of the deadline
- Write your entire work yourself (each and every word!) from the ground up
- DO NOT: “consult” others or search online for “ideas”
- DO NOT use tutoring or editing services to prepare your work

Policy on Use of Generative AI Tools for THIS course: The use of generative artificial intelligence (AI) in our course is strictly PROHIBITED. Submitting any work created (in whole or part) through the use of generative AI tools will be considered a violation of York University’s Senate Policy on Academic Conduct. Using AI apps such as ChatGPT, GPT-3, DALL-E, translation software or others to complete academic work in this course is considered a breach of academic honesty/integrity. For more information, please review AI Technology & Academic Integrity: Information for Students.

Turnitin: To promote academic integrity in this course, students will normally be required to submit their online submissions of written work through Turnitin (via the course eClass) for a review of textual similarity and the detection of possible plagiarism. In so doing, students will allow their material to be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where they will be used only for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University’s use of the Turnitin service are described on the Turnitin.com website.

STUDENT CONDUCT IN THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

All students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with University code of conduct norms, as captured in the Code of Student Rights & Responsibilities, the policy on Disruptive and/or Harassing Behaviour in Academic Situations, and related policies.

York University is committed to fostering teaching and learning environments that are free of disruptive and/or harassing behaviour, physically safe and conducive to effective teaching and learning. Students and instructors are expected to maintain a professional relationship characterized by courtesy, civility and mutual respect and to refrain from actions disruptive to such a relationship. Individuals who fail to adhere to such standards and who violate University or public law may be subject to disciplinary action by the University.

COPYRIGHT & INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Course materials are designed for use as part of this course at York University and are the intellectual property of the instructor unless otherwise stated. Third-party copyrighted materials (such as book chapters, journal articles, music, videos, etc.) have either been licensed for use in this course or fall under an exception or limitation in Canadian Copyright law. Students may not publish, post on an Internet site, sell, or otherwise distribute any course materials or work without the instructor's express permission. Course materials should only be used by students enrolled in this course.

Copying this material for distribution (e.g., uploading material to a commercial third-party website) may lead to a charge of misconduct according to York's Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Senate Policy on Academic Conduct, and/or legal consequences for copyright violations. More information: <https://copyright.info.yorku.ca/>

ACADEMIC CONSIDERATION OF MISSED COURSEWORK

Coursework worth 20% or less of the final course grade might fall under the provisions of the Policy on Academic Consideration for Missed Course Work, whereby students may self-declare no more than two (2) seven-day consideration periods in a 12-week term [one (1) seven-day consideration period per six-week term] for missed assessments.] Students are expected to be familiar with the policy, eligibility criteria, timelines and responsibilities as set in the policy.

- This policy applies to course assessments worth 20% or less of your overall course grade and does not apply to final exams held during the final examination period.
- Where built-in accommodations are set for the assessment, additional considerations are not required under the policy. Built in accommodations can include dropping the lower grade from a set of assessments (such as when the 5 top marks of 7 quizzes count towards the final grade), providing a flexible submission timeline (such as when assignments are open for a long duration), or other built-in accommodations.
- Additional criteria regarding eligible assessments are described in the Policy on Academic Consideration for Missed Course Work and eClass reporting help page.

Students are responsible to:

- Check Policy for eligibility criteria (sections 5.1 a,c,d) and timelines.
- Promptly submit their self-declaration(s) for academic consideration through eClass.
- Follow up regarding accommodation with their professor no later than two (2) business days after the end of the consideration period regarding any accommodation for missed work. A grade of zero (0) on the missed work will normally apply when follow up is not done.
- Be prepared to complete the work as per the accommodation upon your return.

FORMS OF IDENTIFICATION (STUDENT ID)

Photo identification with YU-Card must be presented at exams to write the exam (students without ID would not be allowed to write the exam). YU-cards (either physical or mobile versions) are the ONLY official student identification accepted for exams. Passports, driver's license and other forms of identification are NO LONGER accepted.

Important Note regarding conduct in examinations: Use of mobile or wireless devices is PROHIBITED in the examination room. All such devices must be completely OFF (turned off, not silenced or in “airplane mode”) during the exam and while in the examination hall. An exception might be made by your instructor for the purpose for mobile YU-Card identification and validation – pay careful attention to instructions provided by the course director provided for the specific exam/course. Earbuds/earphones/smartwatches/cameras are prohibited in the exam room.
